

British-Bulgarian Friendship Society Membership Form

The British-Bulgarian Friendship Society was established in 1952. It is a non-political organisation which aims to promote friendship, understanding and cultural relations between the people of Britain and Bulgaria.

The Society:

- organises special interest tours for ornithology, natural history, sightseeing and folklore.
- publishes a newsletter three/four times a year.
- can provide information on aspects of life in Bulgaria.
- organises occasional prestige lectures on some aspect of Bulgarian/British relations.
- maintains a website at www.bbfs.org.uk

If you have been to Bulgaria, whether for a holiday, sport or business, and wish to maintain your links with this fascinating and beautiful country, join the British-Bulgarian Friendship Society.

Membership of the British-Bulgarian Friendship Society is open to any individual, organisation or firm in the United Kingdom if they support the aims of the Society and agree to pay the prescribed subscription or affiliation fee.

All members of the Society are entitled to attend any of the functions organised by the Society.

Individual members have the right to attend the Annual General Meeting and to vote for, and be elected to, the Executive Committee and positions of Officers, provided they have been members for over a year and their subscriptions are up to date.

Affiliated organisations and firms have the right to send one delegate to the Society's AGM and to attend meetings of the Committee where they can participate in discussion, but not vote.
